

MEAD'S MAJORITY
WILL BE 14,000
IN THE STATE

Cuts Republican Majority of Two Years Ago Nearly in Half--Washington County
Cut Him Badly.

DEMOCRATS MAKE
GAINS IN THE HOUSE

While Senate Is Solidly Republican--Congressman Plumley Runs Ahead of His Ticket--Watson Carried Montpelier.

Lieutenant-Governor John A. Mead was yesterday elected governor of Vermont over his Democratic opponent, Charles D. Watson of St. Albans, by a majority which was reduced somewhat from the usual of year majority. Congressman David J. Foster of the first district and Frank Plumley of the second district were re-elected. The latter is particularly an ahead of Mead. The Senate will be solidly Republican, but the Democrats made some gain in the House, probably having as many as forty members.

The returns are not yet complete, but 228 out of 240 towns gave Mead a majority of 14,473.

Reports received at Montpelier to-day from all but 31 towns give Mead 31,359, Watson 16,998, Towle 744, Ordway 821.
This gives Mead a majority of 13,600.

The entire state ticket was elected yesterday, as follows:—

Governor, J. A. Mead of Rutland.
Lieutenant-governor, Leighton P. Slack of St. Johnsbury.
Treasurer, Edward H. Deavitt of Montpelier.
Secretary of state, Guy W. Bailey of Essex Junction.
Auditor of accounts, Horace F. Gram-ham of Craftsbury.
Attorney-general, John G. Sargent of Ludlow.

(The vote of the state by towns, and the representatives elected, are given on page 2.)

REPUBLICANS SWEEP
WASHINGTON COUNTY

The Only Excitement Was the Threatened Revolt Against Harry Daniels of East Montpelier, Who Got in Easily.

Without exception, the Republican county ticket was elected in Washington county yesterday, although Harry Daniels of East Montpelier, the third senatorial candidate, was out somewhat in favor of A. L. Hewitt of Berlin. John W. Gordon of Barre and H. W. Lyford of Warren, the other Republican senatorial nominees, were elected over George N. Tilden of Barre and Dr. H. S. Carver of Marshfield. At the same time Dr.
Carver's son, J. Ward Carver of Barre, was being elected state's attorney, to succeed Benjamin Gates, by a large majority. Assistant Judge William J. Clapp of Barre was re-elected, and George H. Dale of Waterbury was elected as his associate. Sheriff Frank Tracy ran ahead of his ticket in almost every town.

WON BY DOZEN VOTES.

Frank E. Howe Chosen Representative From Bennington.

Bennington, Sept. 7.—In the closest election held in Bennington in years, Representative Frank E. Howe was re-elected yesterday by a majority of 12 votes. This is a decided reduction from his majority of two years ago, but in view of the Democratic landslide that appears to have struck the county, it is considerable victory. Representative Howe will probably be a candidate for the speakership.

More than half the towns in the county elected Democratic representatives, the town of Arlington turning down the Republican candidate by 204 majority.

he thanked his fellow townsmen for their loyal support. The full Republican vote cast as shown in the state and county ticket, was 150. Dr. John A.
Mead, candidate for governor, falling off 19 votes from the strength of the full vote, while Messrs. Stowe, Wilson and Adams, the home candidates on the county ticket, ran considerably above the 150 mark. Charles D. Watson, the Democratic candidate for governor, re-

Them to Think the Worst Has Happened--Lively Session of Congress Foreshadowed.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 7.—News of the LaFollette victory in Wisconsin, the insurgent success in New Hampshire and gains of the progressives in Michigan was received in the camp of the regular Republicans here to-day, with a feeling that the worst has happened. The primary results throughout the country are taken as foreshadowing one of the liveliest sessions of Congress, with progressive measures in the foreground, a resumption of the fight for the physical valuation of railroads, effective conservative legislation and hard last days for Senators Aldrich and Hale. Railroad valuation and tariff revision will be important features of the LaFollette program.

at noon to-day estimated the LaFollette majority at a hundred thousand.

margin in the Republican nomination for Congress in the first district, despite the stirring campaign waged by Sherman E.
Burroughs of Manchester, a progressive.
Congressman Frank D. Currier had an easy victory for a re-nomination in the second district.

Two hundred and seventy-three out of 280 election districts gave Bass 10,941 against 9,912 for Ellis.

altitude and the Boston light this afternoon.

Though United States wins five of the seven counts, Great Britain is victorious in respect to two of the most important questions. The main result will be the allowing of England to regulate the fishing off Newfoundland, after giving America two months' notice of same. The fifth question is regarded as the most important, when the tribunal sustained Great Britain, making the limit three miles, measured from an imaginary point connecting the headlands.

SHARK TOWED SCHOONER.

It Weighed at Least a Ton and Endangered the Vessel on Shoals.

Boston, Sept. 7.—A 30-foot shark, weighing at least a ton, was too hard a proposition for the crew of the fishing schooner Albert Willard, to master, even though the great fish had five harpoons and the schooner's ice pick driven deep in his body. The Willard arrived in port yesterday and her skipper, Capt.
Frank Dougherty, upon an interesting yarn of a two-hour fight with the shark.
The monster was harpooned from the pulpit of the schooner of George's Bank and 10 members of the crew tried to haul it on board. The fish fought despairately and four lily-ribs were driven into it. At the end of a two-hour struggle, the fish was able to tow the schooner towards a dangerous shoal, and fearing that his craft would come to grief, Captain Dougherty ordered the crew to cut lines and let the shark go free.
